Memorandum

The ML Trust is the successor to Mortgages Ltd. (“ML”) under the confirmed plan of reorganization in this case. The ML Trust seeks information concerning services rendered by Jaburg & Wilk for ML, its affiliates, subsidiaries, and otherwise related entities. The ML Trust seeks this information to assist in the collection and investigation of ML’s assets and liabilities.

The requested discovery from Jaburg & Wilk P.C. is well within the scope of examination permitted under Bankruptcy Rule 2004, which includes:

[t]he acts, conduct, or property or . . . the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or . . . any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor’s estate, or to the debtor’s right to a discharge. In a . . . reorganization case under chapter 11 of the Code, . . . the examination may also relate to the operation of any business and the desirability of its continuance, the source of any money or property acquired or to be acquired by the debtor for purposes of consummating a plan and the consideration given or offered therefore, and any other matter relevant to the case or to the formulation of a plan.¹

Conclusion

Accordingly, the ML Trust requests that this Court enter the form of order submitted with this Motion.

Dated: October 9, 2009.

8. “Identify” or “identity” with respect to a natural person requires that the following information be provided for each such person:

- (a) the name of the person;
- (b) the last known home address, business address and/or telephone number of each person.

9. “Identify” or “identity” with respect to a person other than a natural person (e.g., corporation, partnership, unincorporated joint venture, sole proprietorship, subchapter S corporation) requires that the following information be provided for each such person:

- (a) the name of the person;
- (b) the last known address and telephone number of that person's headquarters or principal place of business.

10. “Identify” or “identity” with respect to a document means to state the date and author of the document, the type of document (e.g., letter, memorandum, telegram, chart), the addressee or intended recipient, a summary of its contents or other means of identifying the document, and the present location and custodian of the document. Alternatively, in lieu of the foregoing identification, the document may be produced along with an identification of the interrogatory to which it is responsive. If any such document was, but is no longer, in the possession, custody, or control of Jaburg & Wilk or Jaburg & Wilk’s attorneys or agents, state what disposition was made of it and the date of such disposition. With respect to document identification, documents prepared subsequent to or prior to the time period specified in these interrogatories but which relate or refer to such time or period are to be included in your response.

11. “Identify” or “identity” with respect to a communication, written or oral conversation, conference or meeting, means to identify all persons participating in or in attendance at the communication, conversation, conference or meeting, and to identify all documents recording, summarizing or otherwise arising from the communication, conversation, conference or meeting in accordance with the definitions stated above. In addition, “identify” or “identity” with respect to a communication, conversation, conference or meeting means to state in detail its purpose, all subjects discussed, the method(s) of communication.

12. “Individual” or “Individuals” shall mean the following individuals:

- Scott Coles
- Chris Olsen
- Michael Denning
- Tom Hirsch
- Bob Furst
- Veronica Sas
- Nechelle Wimmer
- Jeff Brandon

- Bobby Barnes
- DiEsta Kiesling
- George Everette
- Wendy Levin
- Ryan Walter
- Phil Sollomi
- Laura Martini
- Dana Wilson
- Harish Shah
- Howard Walder
- Berta Walder

13. “Jaburg & Wilk” shall refer to Jaburg & Wilk, P.C. and its predecessors and successors, past and present subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, branches, agents, officers, directors, employees, attorneys, agents, brokers, representatives, servants, and any and all other persons or entities acting or purporting to act directly or indirectly on behalf of or under the control of Jaburg & Wilk, including any attorneys, advisors, or consultants.

14. “Person” means an individual, firm, partnership, corporation, incorporated or unincorporated association, and any other legal, commercial, corporate or natural entity. “Person” means the plural as well as the singular.

15. “Relating or referring” and/or “relate or refer” means in whole or in part constituting, containing, concerning, embodying, evaluating, reflecting, describing, discussing, demonstrating, evidencing, supporting, analyzing, identifying, stating, referring to or dealing with, or in any way pertaining to including without limitation documents that relate to the preparation of another document, or documents that are attached to or enclosed with another document.

16. “You” or “your” refers to Jaburg & Wilk (as defined below) and its employees, officers, agents, subsidiaries, affiliates and all other persons acting, understood to act, or purporting to act on its behalf or under its direction or control.

II. INSTRUCTIONS

1. The following document requests are to be responded to fully, by furnishing all information in your possession, custody or control. Your having possession, custody, or control of a document includes your having a right, superior to other parties, to compel the production of such document from a third party, such as your agent, employee, representative, or, unless privileged, attorney.

2. If any document requested herein has been lost, discarded, or destroyed, the document so lost, discarded or destroyed should be identified as completely as possible, including without limitation, the date the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the manner in which the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the reason(s) the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the person who authorized that the document be destroyed or discarded, and the person who lost, discarded, or destroyed the document.

3. If you cannot produce a document because it no longer exists or is no longer in your possession, custody, or control, please identify that document by: (a) its title; (b) its nature (for example, a “letter” or “e-mail”); (c) the date it was created or sent; (d) its author(s) and signator(y/ies); (e) any of its recipient(s); (f) the last place it was known to have been located; (g) the circumstances under which it ceased to exist or passed from your possession, custody, or control; and (h) the identity and last known residence and business address of any person who had knowledge of its existence and location.

4. Produce the original, as well as all non-identical duplicates or copies and/or drafts, of all requested documents in your possession, in the possession of your agents, attorneys, accountants or employees, or which are otherwise within your custody, control, or access, wherever located. A document with handwritten notes, editing marks, etc., is not identical to one without such notes or marks and therefore must be produced if within the scope of documents requested.

5. Produce each requested document in its entirety, including all attachments and enclosures, even if only a portion of the document is responsive to the request.

6. If you withhold from production any document (or portion of any document) that is otherwise responsive to a request on the basis of a claim of privilege, work product, or other ground, you must provide sufficient information regarding the withheld document to permit the Court and the parties to evaluate the propriety of your objection. Specifically, you must identify: (a) the name and title of the author(s) of the document; (b) the name and title of each person to whom the document was addressed; (c) the name and title of each person to whom the document was distributed; (d) the name and title of each person to whom the document was disclosed, in whole or in part; (e) the type of document (e.g., “memorandum” or “report”); (f) the subject matter of the document; (g) the purpose(s) of the document; (g) the date on the document and, if different, the date on which the document was created and/or sent; (h) the number of pages of the document; (i) the specific request herein to which the document is responsive; (j) the nature of the privilege(s) asserted as to the document; and (k) a detailed, specific explanation as to why the document is privileged or otherwise immune from discovery, including a presentation of all factual grounds and legal analyses.

7. If any requested document cannot be produced in full, produce it to the extent possible, indicating what is being withheld and the reason it is being withheld.

8. Please produce each specified document either (a) in the original file or organizational system in which it is regularly maintained or organized or (b) designate which documents are being produced in response to which of the numbered specifications below. Produce the requested documents either in their original file folders or appended to a copy of any writing on the file folders from which the documents are taken.

9. Identify each document produced by the paragraph number of this schedule to which it is responsive. If a document is produced in response to more than one request, it is sufficient to identify only the first request to which the document is responsive.

10. All electronically stored information must be produced in the same form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained. Specifically, all electronically stored information must be produced in its native format, so that the metadata can be accessed.

11. Unless otherwise specified, the relevant time period for this request is from January 1, 2002 through and including the present.

12. This request is a continuing one that calls for the supplemental or additional production of documents if any defendant or its counsel obtains supplemental or additional documents.

13. In responding to the requests below: (a) the disjunctive shall also be read to include the conjunctive and vice versa; (b) “including” shall be read to mean “including without limitation;” (c) the singular shall also be read to include the plural and vice versa; (d) the present shall also be read as if the past tense and vice versa; (e) “any” shall be read to include “all” and vice versa; and (f) “and” shall be read to include “or” and vice versa.
