II. INSTRUCTIONS

1. The following Discovery Requests are to be responded to fully, by furnishing all information in your possession, custody or control. Your having possession, custody, or control of a document includes your having a right, superior to other parties, to compel the production of such document from a third party, such as your agent, employee, representative, or, unless privileged, attorney.

2. If any document requested herein has been lost, discarded, or destroyed, the document so lost, discarded or destroyed should be identified as completely as possible, including without limitation, the date the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the manner in which the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the reason(s) the document was lost, discarded, or destroyed, the person who authorized that the document be lost, destroyed, or discarded, and the person who lost, discarded, or destroyed the document.

3. If you cannot produce a document because it no longer exists or is no longer in your possession, custody, or control, please identify that document by: (a) its title; (b) its nature (for example, a “letter” or “e-mail”); (c) the date it was created or sent; (d) its author(s) and signator(y/ies); (e) any of its recipient(s); (f) the last place it was known to have been located; (g) the circumstances under which it ceased to exist or passed from your possession, custody, or control; and (h) the identity and last known residence and business address of any person who had knowledge of its existence and location.

4. Produce the original, as well as all non-identical duplicates or copies and/or drafts, of all requested documents in your possession, in the possession of your agents, attorneys’ accountants or employees, or which are otherwise within your custody, control, or access, wherever located. A document with handwritten notes editing marks, etc., is not identical to one without such notes or marks and therefore must be produced if within the scope of documents requested. If a document has been prepared in several copies, or if additional copies are made that are not identical or are no longer identical by reason of subsequent notation or other modification of any kind whatsoever including, but not limited to, notations on the backs of pages thereto, each non-identical copy is a separate document and must be identified.

5. Produce each requested document in its entirety, including all attachments and enclosures, even if only a portion of the document is responsive to the request.

6. If you withhold from production any document (or portion of any document) that is otherwise responsive to a request on the basis of a claim of privilege, work product, or other ground, you must provide sufficient information regarding the withheld document to permit the Court and the parties to evaluate the propriety of your objection. Specifically, you must identify: (a) the name and title of the author(s) of the document; (b) the name and title of each person to whom the document was addressed; (c) the name and title of each person to whom the document was distributed; (d) the name and title of each person to whom the document was disclosed, in whole or in part; (e) the type of document (e.g., “memorandum” or “report”); (f) the subject matter of the document; (g) the purpose(s) of the document; (h) the date on the document and, if different, the date on which the document was created and/or sent; (i) the number of pages of the document; (j) the specific request herein to which the document is responsive; (k) the nature of the privilege(s) asserted as to the document; and (l) a detailed, specific explanation as to why the document is privileged or otherwise immune from discovery, including a presentation of all factual grounds and legal analyses.

7. If any requested document cannot be produced in full, produce it to the extent possible, indicating what is being withheld and the reason it is being withheld.

8. Please produce each specified document either (a) in the original file or organization system in which it is regularly maintained or organized or (b) designate which documents are being produced in response to which of the numbered specifications below. Produce the requested documents either in their original file folders or appended to a copy of any writing on the file folders from which the documents are taken.

9. Identify each document produced by the paragraph number of this schedule to which it is responsive. If a document is produced in response to more than one request, it is sufficient to identify only the first request to which the document is responsive.

10. All electronically stored information must be produced in the same form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained. Specifically, all electronically stored information must be produced in its native format, so that the metadata can be accessed.

11. Unless otherwise specified, the relevant time period for this request is from January 1, 1998 through and including the present.

12. This request is a continuing one that calls for the supplemental or additional production of documents if any defendant or its counsel obtains supplemental or additional documents.

13. In responding to the requests below: (a) the disjunctive shall also be read to include the conjunctive and vice versa; (b) “including” shall be read to mean “including but not limited to;” (c) the singular shall also be read to include the plural and vice versa; (d) the present shall also be read as if the past tense and vice versa; (e) the masculine includes the feminine and the neutral genders; (f) “any” shall be read to include “all” and vice versa; and (g) “and” shall be read to include “or” and vice versa.

14. The phrases following “including” are intended to illustrate the kinds of matter that we believe are responsive to the Discovery Request. Such examples are not intended to be exhaustive of the material sought and shall not in any way be read to limit the scope of the Discovery Request.
