1. The following Discovery Requests are to be responded to fully, by furnishing all information in your possession, custody or control. Your having possession, custody, or control of a document includes your having a right, superior to other parties, to compel the production of such document from a third party, such as your agent, employee, representative, or, unless privileged, attorney.

If a document has been prepared in several copies, or if additional copies are made that are not identical or are no longer identical by reason of subsequent notation or other modification of any kind whatsoever including, but not limited to, notations on the backs of pages thereto, each non-identical copy is a separate document and must be identified.

6. If you withhold from production any document (or portion of any document) that is otherwise responsive to a request on the basis of a claim of privilege, work product, or other ground, you must provide sufficient information regarding the withheld document to permit the Court and the parties to evaluate the propriety of your objection. Produce the requested documents either in their original file folders or appended to a copy of any writing on the file folders from which the documents are taken.

9. Identify each document produced by the paragraph number of this schedule to which it is responsive. If a document is produced in response to more than one request, it is sufficient to identify only the first request to which the document is responsive.

10. All electronically stored information must be produced in the same form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained. Specifically, all electronically stored information must be produced in its native format, so that the metadata can be accessed.

11. Unless otherwise specified, the relevant time period for this request is from January 1, 1998 through and including the present.
